

MAY BLOCKADE
MEXICAN PORTSPresident Huerta Continues Defying United States.

WILL RESIST INTERVENTION

Dictator Completes Organization of New Congress Regardless of American Demands That No Such Action Be Taken and Informs His Staff That He Will Resist Any Outside Interference.

Mexico City, Nov. 18.—President Huerta, after completing the organization of a new congress in defiance of the wishes of the United States, told members of his staff he is ready to resist intervention by that nation.

Opinions prevail in various circles here that President Wilson will order a blockade of Mexican ports in the near future. Rumor has it that he would be content with such action.

Charge O'Shaughnessy denied he had been recalled. Persistent rumors to this effect were current here, but the charge appeared unfounded.

Enough senators were gathered to form a quorum in the upper house of congress. General Francisco Princes was chosen temporary chairman of the senate and a committee on credentials was appointed.

A similar committee of the chamber of deputies began the work of revising the deputies' credentials and there is nothing to indicate the formal opening of congress next Thursday will be postponed.

The German minister, Admiral von Hintze, summoned the heads of important German commercial houses and asked them to give him inventories of shipments expected. He explained that he would then be in a position better to guard their interests in case of a blockade.

OFFICIALS CALMLY WAITING

Confident Pressure Will Result in Huerta's Downfall.

Washington, Nov. 18.—The United States in its policy toward the provisional government in Mexico apparently is content to await the outcome of the steady pressure being exerted to bring about the downfall of the Huerta regime.

Exciting rumors from Mexico City wholly failed to ruffle the calm confidence of President Wilson or Secretary of State Bryan.

The president was not surprised by reports that Mr. O'Shaughnessy, the American chargé d'affaires, was about to quit Mexico City and it was said that no orders had been given either to Mr. O'Shaughnessy or John Lind at Vera Cruz to leave Mexico.

Rumors that the American embassy would be closed within forty-eight hours were characterized in official sources as "fake."

TEXAS MILITIA IS READY

Governor Colquitt Makes Reply to Mexican Threats.

Austin, Tex., Nov. 18.—"In the event Mexicans start trouble we will protect our citizens and not wait for Washington to act," asserted Governor Colquitt after a conference with Adjutant General Hutchins.

While none of the statement was given out it is known that the Texas national guard is in readiness to answer any call.

The conference was the outcome of a threat by Mexicans to make Texas "answer to the whole Mexican people," unless mercy was shown Mexican ammunition smugglers charged with murder.

GARRISON IS HARD PRESSED

Federalists at Victoria Forced Back With Heavy Losses.

Brownsville, Tex., Nov. 18.—The federal garrison defending Victoria, capital of the state of Tamaulipas, against attacking Constitutionalists has been forced back with heavy losses until they have now concentrated in a Catholic sanctuary in the southern part of the city for a last stand.

This was the substance of the report of General Pablo Gonzales, commanding the Constitutionalists forces received at the Matamoros headquarters by telephone.

"HERO" OF FIRE ARRESTED

Chicago Postal Clerk Held as Incendiary.

Chicago, Nov. 18.—Clement Thatcher, a postal clerk, hailed as a hero last February when he discovered a fire in an apartment house and awakened the tenants, was arrested, suspected of having set fires in four apartment houses Sunday morning.

The four fires broke out within an hour and all within a few blocks of each other. Two were reported by Thatcher.

Investigation by Joseph J. Murray, fired attorney, led to Thatcher's arrest.

READY THURSDAYFactions to Lay Currency Measures Before Senate.

SOME TALK OF ADJOURNING

Several Dates Are Mentioned for Taking Recess Over Thanksgiving, but No Action Will Be Taken Without Securing the Consent of President Wilson.

Washington, Nov. 18.—Definite agreement by both the administration and the anti-administration wings of the senate banking and currency committee to complete their drafts of the currency bill and submit them to the senate by Thursday was followed by general talk at the Capitol of an adjournment of congress over Thanksgiving.

Informal discussion of the possibility of adjournment on both sides of the Capitol, however, failed to take any definite shape.

No adjournment will be taken without the consent of the president and he has not yet made known his views.

Saturday, Monday and Tuesday have been suggested as possible dates for adjournment in conferences of house and senate leaders.

Majority Leader Underwood, due to return from his senatorial campaign in Alabama on Thursday, is expected to take up this question with President Wilson.

"Both wings of the senate committee continued work on their bills. The six administration Democrats reopened their deliberations to consider the advisability of altering the provision in the Glass-Steagall bill for shifting the reserves of the country from the present depositories to the new regional reserve banks.

The Republicans also made numerous amendments correcting what they regarded as discrepancies in the bill and making the latter sections conform to amendments already adopted.

DENIES HIS WIFE'S CHARGES

Dr. Blake, However, Admits Failing to Provide Support.

New York, Nov. 18.—Dr. Joseph A.
Blake, an eminent surgeon, filed his answer in the suit for separation brought by his wife, Mrs. Katherine J. Blake.

All of Mrs. Blake's charges of desecration are denied in the answer. The answer admits, however, that Dr.
Blake has contributed nothing to his wife's support since Aug. 1 of this year.

Dr. Blake asks that the suit be dismissed.

TURNED DOWN BY MARTINE

Senator Tells Suffragists He Is Opposed to Movement.

Washington, Nov. 18.—Suffrage workers from New Jersey who came to Washington to enlist congressional support for the proposed constitutional amendment giving women the right to vote met with opposition when they visited the Capitol and importuned Senator Martine to champion their cause in the senate.

The New Jersey senator declared that he does not favor the proposed enfranchisement of women.

Mrs. Mamie Greinesen, wife of Oliver Greinesen, a West Side drug clerk, was found lying face downward on a cinder pile in the cellar of C. A.
Givens' pharmacy in the South Side.

Practically nude the body was scratched and bruised. The woman's left eye was discolored.

Michael L. Sweeney, a drug clerk, employed in the Givens pharmacy, was arrested a few minutes after the woman's body was found.

tion to Medical School.

nouncement of a gift of more than $4, 000,000 to the Cornell medical college of New York city was made by President Jacob Gould Schurman at the opening of the new hospital of the veterinary college.

It is understood that the donor is Colonel Oliver H. Payne of New York city.

Hamline Football Star Dead.

St. Paul, Nov. 18.—Charles Swelt-zer, captain of the Hamline university football team, died after an illness of less than five days. The cause of his death was spinal meningitis. Swelt-zer was playing his third year of college football this year and was considered the best center in college football in the state. For two years he was unanimously picked by critics as all star center.

TENER MIGHT ACCEPT JOB

Nothing to Prevent Him From Heading National League.

Pittsburg, Nov. 18.—There is nothing to prevent John K. Tener, governor of Pennsylvania, from accepting the presidency of the National Baseball league when it is officially offered him, according to Walter L. Gaither, his private secretary.

"While the position has been suggested to Governor Tener through private channels the matter officially has not been brought to his attention and naturally the governor does not care to discuss the subject," Mr. Gaither said.

WEATHER BUREAU
ANSWERS CRITICSSays Ample Warning Was Given of Great Lakes Storm.

Washington, Nov. 18.—In reply to charges that the weather bureau had not given adequate warning to shipping on the Great Lakes of the approach of last week's terrific storm which resulted in a loss of 254 lives the bureau issued a statement declaring that "the storm throughout its course was heralded in as complete a manner as possible."

Full responsibility for the forecasts was taken by the bureau, the local forecaster at Cleveland being absolved from any possible blame.

"All forecasts relating to this atmospheric disturbance were disseminated from Washington," the statement said.

"On Thursday when the storm was over the Canadian Northwest small craft warnings were displayed at every station over the Great Lakes.

On Friday at 10 a. m., as the storm advanced and increased in intensity, signals were changed to storm warnings and displayed at every point on the Great Lakes as far east as Oswego.

"On Sunday morning, owing to an approaching secondary storm, moving northward in an abnormal manner the added precaution was taken to repeat the storm warnings on the Great Lakes from Detroit eastward, those on the northern lakes being continued under existing rules.

"The records show that every weather bureau means for disseminating news of such storms was used.
Displays were made at 113 points along the lake shores."

MANN CONSENTS TO PEACE

Minority Leader Will Drop Demand for Daily Roll Call.

Washington, Nov. 18.—Messages of reassurance are speeding to members of the house who have seen themselves listed as "absent" on the daily roll call in the closing days of the long extra session. Acting Majority Leader Johnson of Kentucky said he had received renewed assurances from Minority Leader Mann that the latter would no longer insist upon the daily roll call on motions to adjourn.

When the Democrats declined to allow the house to recess or to take up routine business Mr. Mann started out to show in the record that the Democrats were not "on the job." As a result every day the Democrats found it necessary to call the roll in order to adjourn the house.

BRING CORN FROM IRELAND

Owing to Shortage in America Cargo Arrives at Montreal.

Montreal, Nov. 18.—A cargo of corn grown in Ireland was brought into port from Belfast. The importation of corn has been made necessary by the shortage of the American crop. It has been found cheaper to import corn from Ireland than to bring it to Montreal from Chicago.

OF MONEY BILLNo Effort Was Made to Hurry Its Consideration.

PLAN "OPEN DOOR" CAUCUS

Politicians See In It Only the Carrying Out of a Cut and Dried Program.
Legislation Framed in Private Conferences—Much Work Is Done at Homes of Lawmakers.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Nov. 18.—[Special.]— The "I told you so brigade," which includes a large number of persons who predicted that the financial legislation could not be passed in the special session, are pointing to their predictions, with now and then one who chirrup with the assertion that he predicted the bill would not be reported during the special session.

The attitude of senators whom President Wilson drove unwillingly into currency legislation after they had spent so much time on the tariff was a guarantee that the currency bill would be delayed. The methods of delay are not such that any one can say deliberate intention to prevent action has been the object, yet when we recollect that the bill has been before the committee since Sept. 18 it would appear that no effort to hurry its consideration is evident.

The "Open Door" Caucus.

The caucus with the "open door" may be a feature of future congress-sional action, but it is not to be expected that men of a party with real differences to settle are going to open their discussions to the public. There may be so called open caucuses, but they will be perfunctory affairs. The real differences will be settled in private conference.

Much of the legislation is framed by private conferences. In many cases meetings are held at the residences of senators and representatives in order to insure more privacy. The call for the "open caucuses" always sounds well, but majority parties with many divergent views to adjust are apt to compose them in private conferences in quiet places.

Money Power Beat Clark.

Half a dozen different things served to prevent Champ Clark from being president. It was Phil Campbell of Kansas who put in the Record recently an outside speech in which the statement was made that when Champ Clark spoke against the Aldrich currency bill a prominent banker was heard to say, "That puts Champ Clark out of the race." And yet we all have an idea that the bankers did not have much to do with the Bryan speech, which was the real cause of Champ's defeat. And what reason had the bankers to prefer Wilson to Clark?

As events have progressed it has been found that these two statesmen do not differ materially upon the main questions before the country.

Money and Partisanship.

Two Democratic members of the banking and currency committee asserted that they had seen no evidence on the part of the Republicans to make the currency bill a party measure or to play politics in its consideration, and yet the bill was made a measure of Democratic caucus consideration in spite of those declarations. But there was this difference: While the Republicans had not shown partisanship, they had shown opposition to some of the cherished features of the administration bill. Party lines were drawn between the president and the Republicans, with two or three Democrats inclined to side with the Republicans; hence the caucuses.

Dead Letter Law.

During the last years of the Roosevelt administration the smoke law for Washington was enforced rigorously.
Since he went out of office there has been scarcely a prosecution under that law, and columns of black smoke go up from factory, hotel, apartment house and even private residences.
Washington has forgotten that it has a strong anti-smoke law.

It often happens that when a senator is talking a group of senators elsewhere will be telling stories and enjoying jokes and creating a great deal of confusion. Senator Bacon always stops in the midst of what he is saying and waits until the silence becomes painful. In that way he secures a little order so that he can be heard at least by the stenographers.

Mann Making Up.

If Jim Mann has annoyed the administration by throwing javelins from the floor of the house he has at least made up for it in the manner in which he has helped to make the White House wedding a success. He has made it plain that politics has nothing to do with love's young dream.

Bacon's Way.

It often happens that when a senator is talking a group of senators elsewhere will be telling stories and en-
painful. In that way he secures a lit-
least by the stenographers.

Champ's Opinion of Reed.

Senator Reed of Missouri has taken an active part in the senate this session. He has been a member of the lobby investigation committee and also banking and currency. "Jim Reed," said Speaker Clark, "is one of the best criminal lawyers in the southwest. He is an able man, and he will make his mark in the senate."

Senator Admits Purchase of Farm in Maryland.

Washington, Nov. 18.—Senator Clapp had nothing to say concerning a rumor that he had bought a farm in Maryland near here to which he would retire at the end of his present term.

"I have bought a farm," he said.
"There has been no secret about that.
I bought it just as I might buy any other farm that I thought was for sale at a figure that would enable me to realize a profit."

INDIANS ENCAMP IN STRONG POSITIONNew Mexican Reds Defending Eight Renegades.

Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 18.—Fifteen hundred Navajo Indians have rallied in defense of eight renegades and are reported in armed encampment on Beautiful mountain, thirty-five miles southwest of the Ship Rock agency, defying United States Marshal Hudspeth to take prisoner the renegades who are wanted on federal warrants charging horse stealing, assault and bigamy.

Two troops of cavalry have been asked for by the marshal and the request has been referred by the war department to Major General Carter, in command of the border patrol.

The Indians are fortifying on a high table mountain, the summit of which is approachable by only one tortuous road.

Marshal Hudspeth returned with three of the eleven renegades. The eight others escaped and rallied their tribesmen to the defense before the marshal reached the agency.

An investigation showed that the Indians rounded up their cattle and sheep, harvested their corn and otherwise made ready for a siege.
The Indians are led by Chief Black Horse and 150 young bucks.

Grand Forks, N. D., Nov. 18.—After William Harquin had made a perilous climb to a point of vantage on a pier he paused briefly to tell an assembled crowd on the DeMars avenue bridge why he intended committing suicide.

Officer Mahon and Robert Davis, a civilian, reached him and on narrow timbers, sixty feet above the water, the would be suicide gave them a battle that ended when he was finally brought back to the bridge level.

Seven hours later Davis, the policeman's assistant in the arrest of the suicide, was arrested and information against him also charges insanity.
Davis has become a raving maniac.

La Crosse Discovery Reveals Killing revealed what was left of the body of Patrick Welch of Chicago, cut into had rolled off the platform to the track,

The German minister, Admiral von Hintze, summoned the heads of important German commercial houses and asked them to give him inventories of shipments expected. He explained that he would then be in a position better to guard their interests in case of a blockade.

Minority Leader Will Drop Demand for Daily Roll Call.

Washington, Nov. 18.—Messages of reassurance are speeding to members of the house who have seen themselves listed as "absent" on the daily roll call in the closing days of the long extra session. Acting Majority Leader Johnson of Kentucky said he had received renewed assurances from Minority Leader Mann that the latter would no longer insist upon the daily roll call on motions to adjourn.

When the Democrats declined to allow the house to recess or to take up routine business Mr. Mann started out to show in the record that the Democrats were not "on the job." As a result every day the Democrats found it necessary to call the roll in order to adjourn the house.

Owing to Shortage in America Cargo Arrives at Montreal.

Montreal, Nov. 18.—A cargo of corn grown in Ireland was brought into port from Belfast. The importation of corn has been made necessary by the shortage of the American crop. It has been found cheaper to import corn from Ireland than to bring it to Montreal from Chicago.

Washington, Nov. 18.—The supreme court recessed until Dec. 1 to prepare opinions in eighty awaiting decisions.

EXPECTED DELAY OF MONEY BILL

No Effort Was Made to Hurry Its Consideration.

PLAN "OPEN DOOR" CAUCUS

Politicians See In It Only the Carrying Out of a Cut and Dried Program. Legislation Framed in Private Conferences—Much Work Is Done at Homes of Lawmakers.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Nov. 18.—[Special.]—The "I told you so brigade," which includes a large number of persons who predicted that the financial legislation could not be passed in the special session, are pointing to their predictions, with now and then one who chirps with the assertion that he predicted the bill would not be reported during the special session.

The attitude of senators whom President Wilson drove unwillingly into currency legislation after they had spent so much time on the tariff was a guarantee that the currency bill would be delayed. The methods of delay are not such that any one can say deliberate intention to prevent action has been the object, yet when we recollect that the bill has been before the committee since Sept. 18 it would appear that no effort to hurry its consideration is evident.

The caucus with the "open door" may be a feature of future congressional action, but it is not to be expected that men of a party with real differences to settle are going to open their discussions to the public. There may be so called open caucuses, but they will be perfunctory affairs. The real differences will be settled in private conference.

Much of the legislation is framed by private conferences. In many cases meetings are held at the residences of senators and representatives in order to insure more privacy. The call for the "open caucuses" always sounds well, but majority parties with many divergent views to adjust are apt to compose them in private conferences in quiet places.

Money Power Beat Clark.

Half a dozen different things served to prevent Champ Clark from being president. It was Phil Campbell of Kansas who put in the Record recently an outside speech in which the statement was made that when Champ Clark spoke against the Aldrich currency bill a prominent banker was heard to say, "That puts Champ Clark out of the race." And yet we all have an idea that the bankers did not have much to do with the Bryan speech, which was the real cause of Champ's defeat. And what reason had the bankers to prefer Wilson to Clark? As events have progressed it has been found that these two statesmen do not differ materially upon the main questions before the country.

Money and Partisanship.

Two Democratic members of the banking and currency committee asserted that they had seen no evidence on the part of the Republicans to make the currency bill a party measure or to play politics in its consideration, and yet the bill was made a measure of Democratic caucus consideration in spite of those declarations. But there was this difference: While the Republicans had not shown partisanship, they had shown opposition to some of the cherished features of the administration bill. Party lines were drawn between the president and the Republicans, with two or three Democrats inclined to side with the Republicans; hence the caucuses.

Dead Letter Law.

During the last years of the Roosevelt administration the smoke law for Washington was enforced rigorously. Since he went out of office there has been scarcely a prosecution under that law, and columns of black smoke go up from factory, hotel, apartment house and even private residences. Washington has forgotten that it has a strong anti-smoke law.

Bacon's Way.

It often happens that when a senator is talking a group of senators elsewhere will be telling stories and enjoying jokes and creating a great deal of confusion. Senator Bacon always stops in the midst of what he is saying and waits until the silence becomes painful. In that way he secures a little order so that he can be heard at least by the stenographers.

Mann Making Up.

If Jim Mann has annoyed the administration by throwing javelins from the floor of the house he has at least made up for it in the manner in which he has helped to make the White House wedding a success. He has made it plain that politics has nothing to do with love's young dream.

Champ's Opinion of Reed.

Senator Reed of Missouri has taken an active part in the senate this session. He has been a member of the lobby investigation committee and also banking and currency. "Jim Reed," said Speaker Clark, "is one of the best criminal lawyers in the southwest. He is an able man, and he will make his mark in the senate."

CLAPP SILENT ON RUMORS

Senator Admits Purchase of Farm in Maryland.

Washington, Nov. 18.—Senator Clapp had nothing to say concerning a rumor that he had bought a farm in Maryland near here to which he would retire at the end of his present term.

"I have bought a farm," he said. "I bought it just as I might buy any other farm that I thought was for sale at a figure that would enable me to realize a profit."

STRONG POSITION

New Mexican Reds Defending Eight Renegades.

Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 18.—Fifteen hundred Navajo Indians have rallied in defense of eight renegades and are reported in armed encampment on Beautiful mountain, thirty-five miles southwest of the Ship Rock agency, defying United States Marshal Hudspeth to take prisoner the renegades who are wanted on federal warrants charging horse stealing, assault and bigamy.

Two troops of cavalry have been asked for by the marshal and the request has been referred by the war department to Major General Carter, in command of the border patrol.

The Indians are fortifying on a high table mountain, the summit of which is approachable by only one tortuous road.

Marshal Hudspeth returned with three of the eleven renegades. The eight others escaped and rallied their tribesmen to the defense before the marshal reached the agency.

An investigation showed that the Indians rounded up their cattle and sheep, harvested their corn and otherwise made ready for a siege.

The Indians are led by Chief Black Horse and 150 young bucks.

BATTLE UNBALANCES MIND

Man Goes Insane After Aiding in Preventing Suicide.

Grand Forks, N. D., Nov. 18.—After William Harquin had made a perilous climb to a point of vantage on a pier in the middle of the Red river he paused briefly to tell an assembled crowd on the DeMars avenue bridge why he intended committing suicide.

Officer Mahon and Robert Davis, a civilian, reached him and on narrow timbers, sixty feet above the water, the would-be suicide gave them a battle that ended when he was finally brought back to the bridge level.

Seven hours later Davis, the policeman's assistant in the arrest of the suicide, was arrested and information against him also charges insanity. Davis has become a raving maniac.

Federation of Labor Acts on Michigan Trouble.

SEVERAL FIERY SPEECHES

Seattle Convention Adopts Resolutions Declaring Mine Owners Ignored Men's Demands, Spurned Conciliation Attempts and Imported Gunmen, Thugs and So Called Detectives Into the Strike Zone.

Seattle, Nov. 18.—Fiery speeches were made in the American Federation of Labor convention attacking the Michigan copper mine owners whose employees are on strike.

Resolutions demanding a congressional investigation and calling for contributions for the support of the strikers were adopted.

President Samuel Gompers said the convention undoubtedly would adopt a resolution, if presented, demanding investigation as to how the Calumet and Hecla company obtained title to its copper land.

The resolutions adopted set forth that the mine owners ignored the demands of the men, spurned their attempts at conciliation and in many ways treated them with contempt, imported gunmen, thugs and so called detectives into the strike zone and that these men deliberately killed strikers, assaulted women and terrorized children.

Joseph D. Cannon of the Western Federation of Miners described the conditions under which the workers revolted.

John P. Walker, president of the Illinois Mine Workers, who has spent months in the Calumet region, said it would be impossible to exaggerate conditions there, "which would disgrace the most barbarous country in the world."

John B. Lennon, treasurer of the federation, said he saw young soldiers drunk on the streets of Calumet with revolvers in their belts. He said he saw them insult women on the streets.

Invitations from New York and St. Louis for the 1914 convention were read.

500 SHOE WORKERS STRIKE

Change in Piece Work Results in General Walkout.

Milwaukee, Nov. 18.—Five hundred boot and shoe workers of the United Shoe Workers' union went on strike at a local shoe factory here because of a change in the piece work system, resulting in a decrease in wages.

Arvid Erlander and J. R. Oldham of Lynn, Mass., officers of the United Shoe Workers, have taken charge of the workers' case.

In the demands presented to the manufacturers the strikers ask their old rate, five minutes' time before noon and night to clean up, and that they be paid every Wednesday before closing time. An early adjustment is expected.

Two members of the state board of conciliation and arbitration came here to confer with both sides in the controversies.

The union asks for an eight-hour day at the same pay now received for a twelve-hour day.

While straying through the woods seven miles northeast of town, "Happy" Long, son of S. V. Long, nearly dropped dead with astonishment when a deer crossed his path. While straying through the woods seven miles northeast of town, "Happy" Long, son of S. V. Long, nearly dropped dead with astonishment when a deer crossed his path. He involuntarily leveled his gun at the animal, shut both eyes as though playing high C on the cornet, fired like a machine gun and took the deer in the fifth dorsal vertebra and knocked it over as dead as the proverbial door nail. Any hunter can travel 200 miles up to the Canadian boundary and get a deer, but it takes real hunting to get an animal so close to Brainerd.

UNCIL REVOKES BEDARF LICENSE

For a Short Trial in Which Minors assert They Got Beer to Drink There, Council Acts

1000 BONDS FOR BRIDGE FILL

Council Calls a Public Meeting for December 2 to Organize Associated Charities

Eleven members of the city council at a present Monday night with the option of Alderman Hess. The saloon license of Frank Bedford, 510 Laurel street, was revoked for the council listened to evidence tending to show there had been sales of liquor to minors. The regular order of business was suspended and City Attorney Haglund called the first witness, Louis Paulson. Paulson said he was in the saloon on October 11 with Benny Elide and George Sylvester. They shook hands and had a drink. All had beer, heard that Elide and Sylvester were not of age. Some argument resulted as to whether soft drinks or beer had been served. Paulson said he was drawn out of the same faucet that it was all beer.

Martin Elide said he lived in Brainerd and was a brother of Benny and the latter was 18 years old. He and Louis Paulson, Elide, Benson and others were in the saloon. They had nothing to drink, but he did not know what it was.

Benny Elide said he was 18 years old that he was in the saloon on October 11. They had got beer at the bar of Bedford's saloon. He had never been in any other saloon. He called for beer. The bartender gave him beer. His age had not been asked.

George Sylvester gave his age as 18 and said he was in the saloon on October 11 for the first time. He got glass of beer over the bar. He knew beer when he tasted it. He had at least two beers. Whoever beat in the dice game had to buy drinks. There were five in the party. Young Sylvester, while on the stand, puffed nonchalantly at a cigarette and President of the Council A. Lagerquist asked information regarding the cigarette law and whether Sylvester was legally entitled to make them. It seems that an 18 year old boy not attending school has the inestimable (?) privilege of smoking a cigarette.

Alfred Hicks gave his age as 17. He said he had been in the Bedford saloon two or three times. He was there on October 9 and drank beer and cider. No one paid for the drinks as they were "on the books." He had beer there some time after October 9.

Charles E. Geminder, the most youthful looking and smallest one in the lot of witnesses, gave his age as 16 and 1/2 years. He had been in the Bedford saloon, and mentioned who was with him. He drank beer. Hicks got some beer from the tap. The bartender was the bartender. A. O. Ellingboe said he was at the saloon on October 9. Harry Erickson, aged 19 and 1/2 years, was with him. They sat at a table and all had beer.

TRAINS COLLIDE AND 14 CARS BURN

Two Enginemen Injured in Freight Wreck at Sartelle—Minneapolis Sends Help

ST. CLOUD REFUSED FIRE ENGINE

Said They Could not Spare the Equipment—N. P. Trains Use the Great Northern

The Minneapolis Journal has the following account of the wreck occurring at Sartelle.

Two men were badly injured and a freight train of fourteen cars was burned at Sartelle Sunday night when the second section of a Northern Pacific freight train crashed into the rear of the first.

The first section of the fourteen cars, running to Minneapolis, stopped at Sartelle to cool a hot box. Signals were set against the second section, but Charles E. Hilton, engineer, did not see them. His engine, traveling at high speed, crashed through the caboose of the train, and through eight freight cars, overturning and setting the cars on fire.

The entire train of fourteen cars was destroyed and calls were sent to Minneapolis for fire-fighting equipment. The burned cars were loaded with wheat, apples and canned goods. Hilton was rushed to a hospital, his legs badly crushed. J. J. Corbin, fireman was also badly hurt.

The loss is estimated at $200,000. All traffic over the line is still interrupted.

Hilton, engineer, was pinned underneath the engine and it took forty-five minutes to extricate him. Escaping steam scalded his legs and it was necessary to cut off his shoes before he could be released. He is from Minneapolis. When the cars caught fire men worked frantically to save him. It was thought at one time it would be necessary to amputate one of his legs.

The engineer of train 1517 says that when he discovered the train ahead he applied the brakes, but they failed to respond and he crashed into the caboose and plowed through the cars before the engine turned over. Fortunately no one was in the caboose. Engine No. 1517 was of the mogul type and was completely demolished. Earl Davis, a brakeman, was slightly bruised.

Fire fighters and apparatus were rushed to Sartelle, by the Minneapolis fire department Monday on an appeal from the Northern Pacific railroad. A string of freight cars 500 feet long was burning at the time and many other cars and other property were threatened, according to the report received at the railroad headquarters. The steamer from engine house No. 5 and a hose cart from No. 2 were dispatched. A special train whirled the apparatus and men to the scene of the danger. Three men accompanied the apparatus—Captain Ack Foster of No. 4, Hugh McLeod, engineer at No. 5, and Robert Kullman, a stoker.

The fourteen cars were loaded with apples, salmon, grain, coal, etc. The freight standing on the tracks had several cars of livestock near the upper end which were not in-

COURT GRILLS CROSBY ATTORNEY

D. J. Severance Attempts to Try a Case in District Court While Intoxicated

IS FINED $50 FOR OFFENSE

Judge W. S. McClenahan Reads Severance a Severe Lecture at the Morning Session

"You are a disgrace to your profession" said Judge W. S. McClenahan to Attorney D. J. Severance, of Crosby, as the latter, plainly under the influence of liquor, bobbed in his seat and vainly tried to collect his alcoholic tainted thoughts.

The Crosby man appeared for one John Maki, a Finn who is accused of a serious offense, that of stabbing a man. Yesterday the court took pity on the client represented by such a bibulous individual as Severance and fearing that Maki would not be protected in his legal rights by Severance, then under the influence of liquor, the court ordered an adjournment.

This morning Severance was more "soused" than ever and Judge McClenahan, beside himself with impatience and angered at the effrontery of the man who presumed to practice law in such shape, fined him $50 or 60 days in jail.

"If I should do my full duty," said the court, "I would report you to the examining board at St. Paul and have you disbarred." Court adjourned in the morning. In the afternoon Severance did not show up and the court appointed Attorney Brown, of Schall & Brown, of Crosby, to appear for Maki.

Jured. When the salmon burned, the cans steamed up and exploded with the noise of musketry.

St. Cloud was asked to send fire apparatus, but replied they could not spare any and needed it for the protection of their town.

The Great Northern railway generously gave up its tracks to the Northern Pacific railway and trains of all descriptions were routed over its lines while its own traffic was kept going. Not a trainman complained of the additional burdens imposed. Some N. P. trains went via Sauk Center on the Great Northern, some from Wadena to St. Cloud on the Great Northern. Yesterday morning the 5:45 St. Paul passenger, due in St. Paul at 10 in the morning, arrived there at 4:30 in the afternoon. Train No. 12 of the N. P. line met train No. 13 at Melrose on the Great Northern and train No. 9 was passed at Freeport. Trains 1 and 5 were at St. Cloud, traveling on the Great Northern.

Ronald H. Hartley, prominently identified with the early history of Brainerd, is visiting relatives in the city. He was accompanied by Mrs. Dale Hartley Baker, and she is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Slipp and Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Slipp.

Mr. Hartley's recollections of Brainerd date back to 1878 when Brainerd was a frontier, lumber jack town. The Northern Pacific railroad had its terminus at Bismarck. The general offices of the railway company were all at the Brainerd depot.

H. A. Towne was the superintendent of the railway and lived next door to Mr. Hartley's mother, Mrs. E. W. Hartley. There were nine boys and three girls in the family then.

Heber L. Hartley and G. G. Hartley are now in Duluth. W. W. Hartley was postmaster of Brainerd and edited the Brainerd Tribune in the early seventies. Mrs. L. G. Rogers, a sister of Mr. Hartley, lives at Storrs, Conn. B. F. Hartley is the manager of the Clough-Hartley Lumber Co. in Everett, Wash. He was mayor of Brainerd 30 years ago and built the First National bank block.

At Everett the Hartleys and the Cloughs are prominently identified with the lumber business. The companies are the Clark-Nickerson Lumber Co., the Clough-Hartley Co., and the Hartley Shingle Co. David M. Clough, who was formerly governor of Minnesota, is the same as ever. He is never contented unless working. He keeps an eye on Minnesota and eagerly reads all papers from this state. He often said that when he had the time he would visit at Brainerd and other points. In the early days he made Brainerd his headquarters, maintained a camp at Pine River and bought all his supplies in this city.

Ex-Governor Clough's daughter is the wife of Ronald H. Hartley. Mr. Hartley is deeply versed in Masonic affairs and is a 33rd degree Mason, being Inspector General Honorary of Minnesota. He was Grand Commander of the Knights Templar of Minnesota in 1902-1903. He is a member of Zurah temple and in 1898 was District Deputy Grand Master of Minnesota. Mr. Hartley attended Monday night's meeting of Ascension Commandery when E. P. Slipp was given the Knights Templar order.

"I never enjoyed two years of my life better than when I was mayor of Everett, Wash.," said Mr. Hartley. "I got along very well. The town has lumbering as its principal

There, Council Acts

Council Calls a Public Meeting for December 2 to Organize Associated Charities

All members of the city council present Monday night with the exception of Alderman Hess.

The saloon license of Frank Be-darf, 510 Laurel street, was revoked by the council listened to evidence showing there had been sales of liquor to minors.

The regular order of business was called and City Attorney Haggeland called the first witness, Louis Paulson. Paulson said he was in the saloon on October 11 with Benny Elde and George Sylvester. They shook and had a drink. All had beer.
He heard that Elde and Sylvester were not of age. Some argument resulted as to whether soft drinks or beer had been served. Paulson said he was drawn out of the same faucet that it was all beer.

Martin Elde said he lived in Brainerd and was a brother of Benny and the latter was 18 years old. He said Louis Paulson, Elde, Benson and others were in the saloon. They had nothing to drink, but he did not know what it was.

Ben Elde said he was 18 years old and that he was in the saloon on October 11. They had got beer at the bar of Bedarf's saloon. He had never been in any other saloon. He called for beer. The bartender gave him beer. His age had not been asked.

George Sylvester gave his age as 17 and said he was in the saloon on October 11 for the first time. He got a glass of beer over the bar. He knew beer when he tasted it.
He had at least two beers. Whoever beat in the dice game had to buy drinks. There were five in the saloon. Young Sylvester, while on stand, puffed nonchalantly at a cigarette and President of the Council A. Lagerquist asked information regarding the cigarette law and whether Sylvester was legally entitled to make them. It seems that an 18 year old boy not attending school has the inestimable (?) privilege of smoking a cigarette.

Alfred Hids gave his age as 17.
He said he had been in the Bedarf saloon two or three times. He was there on October 9 and drank beer and other drinks. No one paid for the drinks as they were "on the books." He had beer there some time after October 9.

Charles E. Geminder, the most outgoing looking and smallest one in the lot of witnesses, gave his age as 17 and 1/2 years. He had been in Bedarf saloon, and mentioned who was with him. He drank beer.
He got some beer from the tapster, a bartender.

A. O. Ellingboe said he was at the saloon on October 9. Harry Erickson, aged 19 and 1/2 years, was with him. They sat at a table and all had beer. (Continued on page 4)

Two Enginemen Injured in Freight Wreck at Sartelle—Minneapolis Sends Help

ST. CLOUD REFUSED FIRE ENGINE

Said They Could not Spare the Equipment—N. P. Trains Use the Great Northern

The Minneapolis Journal has the following account of the wreck occur-ing at Sartelle.

Two men were badly injured and a freight train of fourteen cars was burned at Sartelle Sunday night when the second section of a Northern Pacific freight train crashed into the car of the first.

The first section of the fourteen cars, running to Minneapolis, stopped at Sartelle to cool a hot box. Signals were set against the second section, but Charles E. Hilton, engineer, did not see them. His engine, traveling at high speed, crashed through the caboose of the train, and through eight freight cars, overturning and setting the cars on fire.

The entire train of fourteen cars was destroyed and calls were sent to Minneapolis for fire-fighting equipment. The burned cars were loaded with wheat, apples and canned goods.
Hilton was rushed to a hospital, his legs badly crushed. J. J. Corbin, fireman was also badly hurt.

The loss is estimated at $200,000.
All traffic over the line is still interrupted.

Hilton, engineer, was pinned underneath the engine and it took forty-five minutes to extricate him. Escaping steam scalded his legs and it was necessary to cut off his shoes before he could be released. He is from Minneapolis. When the cars caught fire men worked frantically to save him. It was thought at one time it would be necessary to ampu-tate one of his legs.

The engineer of train 1517 says that when he discovered the train ahead he applied the brakes, but they failed to respond and he crashed into the caboose and plowed through the cars before the engine turned over. Fortunately no one was in the caboose. Engine No. 1517 was of the mogul type and was completely demolished. Earl Davis, a brakeman, was slightly bruised.

Fire fighters and apparatus were rushed to Sartelle, by the Minneapolis fire department Monday on an appeal from the Northern Pacific railroad. A string of freight cars 500 feet long was burning at the time and many other cars and other property were threatened, according to the report received at the railroad headquarters. The steamer from engine house No. 5 and a hose cart from No.
2 were dispatched. A special train whirled the apparatus and men to the scene of the danger. Three men accompanied the apparatus—Captain Ack Foster of No. 4, Hugh McLeod, engineer at No. 5, and Robert Kullman, a stoker.

The fourteen cars were loaded with apples, salmon, grain, coal, etc.
The freight standing on the tracks had several cars of livestock near the upper end which were not involved.

D. J. Severance Attempts to Try a Case in District Court While Intoxicated

Judge W. S. McClenahan Reads Severance a Severe Lecture at the Morning Session

"You are a disgrace to your profession" said Judge W. S. McClenahan to Attorney D. J. Severance, of Crosby, as the latter, plainly under the influence of liquor, bobbed in his seat and vainly tried to collect his alcoholic tainted thoughts.

The Crosby man appeared for one John Maki, a Finn who is accused of a serious offense, that of stabbing a man. Yesterday the court took pity on the client represented by such a bibulous individual as Severance and fearing that Maki would not be protected in his legal rights by Severance, then under the influence of liquor, the court ordered an adjournment.

This morning Severance was more "soused" than ever and Judge Mc-Clenahan, beside himself with impatience and angered at the affrontery of the man who presumed to practice law in such shape, fined him $50 or 60 days in jail.

"If I should do my full duty," said the court, "I would report you to the examining board at St. Paul and have you disbarred." Court adjourned in the morning. In the afternoon Severance did not show up and the court appointed Attorney Brown, of Schall & Brown, of Crosby, to appear for Maki.

Jured. When the salmon burned, the cans steamed up and exploded with the noise of musketry.

St. Cloud was asked to send fire apparatus, but replied they could not spare any and needed it for the protection of their town.

The Great Northern railway generously gave up its tracks to the Northern Pacific railway and trains of all descriptions were routed over its lines while its own traffic was kept going. Not a trainman complained of the additional burdens imposed.
Some N. P. trains went via Sauk Center on the Great Northern, some from Wadena to St. Cloud on the Great Northern. Yesterday morning the 5:45 St. Paul passenger, due in St. Paul at 10 in the morning, arrived there at 4:30 in the afternoon.
Train No. 12 of the N. P. line met train No. 13 at Melrose on the Great Northern and train No. 9 was passed at Freeport. Trains 1 and 5 were at St. Cloud, traveling on the Great Northern.

he had given the bartender strict orders not to sell to minors.

Mayor R. A. Henning said that conclusive evidence had been received that this saloon had sold liquor to minors. He said two other saloons were being watched. Several minors had been in municipal court, being picked up drunk in the streets.

A motion was made to defer to the next meeting further consideration of the Bedarf saloon matter. Mayor Henning said the Brainerd Brewing Co. had put up the $500 license money and that it was trying to protect its interests. He claimed that Werner Hemstead had gone over the affidavits before the transfer for a license from Bedarf to Henry Wise was filed. The present motion was made to dodge the issue and to defer action until a vote was taken on the transfer.

The motion to defer action was lost 5 to 4, the aldermen voting as follows: To defer action, Aldermen Mahlum, Stallman, Smith and Lagerquist. Against deferring action, Aldermen Peterson, Anderson, Betzold, Haake, Gallupe.

Alderman Anderson, seconded by Alderman Haake, made a motion to revoke the license. It carried 6 to 3.
For revocation were Aldermen Smith, Peterson, Anderson, Betzold, Haake and Gallupe. Against revocation were Aldermen Mahlum, Stallman and Lagerquist, who stated their reasons for so voting.

All voted aye to refund the unused portion of the license money.

The matter of a fill at the present site of the Northeast Brainerd ravine bridge was taken up. Mayor Henning detailed the results of his correspondence with various contractors, Foley Brothers, of St. Paul; Peter Nelson, of Minneapolis. Each contractor thought it too small a job to undertake. Nelson made a price of 30 cents a cubic yard and freight to be paid one way on his equipment, as to be hauled to the timbers now in the bridge.

Alderman Haake said most of the people he had seen were in favor of the fill, preferring it to a bridge.

City Attorney Haggard said the bridge had been maintained under a perpetual lease from the Northern Pacific railway. Mr. Cooper, of the land department, was not at St. Paul when he called and that a subordinate had given him the information.
Mr. Haggard was requested to put his request for information in writing and it was filed at the railway office for Mr. Cooper's perusal. He was told at the office that the railway company, as a rule, had no objection to a fill being made. Such requests were usually granted.

On motion it was decided to put before the people at the special election called for the consideration of the city manager plan of commission government, the question of voting for $22,000 bonds to put in the fill.
The city attorney was instructed to prepare the necessary resolution to that effect.

Alderman Mahlum called attention to the fact that the city should have a new lockup, as the present one had been condemned by the state board of control. Alderman Peterson moved that a committee be appointed to meet with the county commissioners and ascertain their views. Agent Foley, of the state board of control had offered the council access to all plans and records referring to jails built in all parts of the state and would be glad to have the whole concil call for information. Alderman Mahlum suggested that the city attorney and city engineer be appointed a committee to meet with the board of control and this motion carried.

In the discussion the fact was brought out that many cities housed their city hall and county court house in the same building, thus saving on heating and maintenance. St. Paul followed this plan and many other large cities and the committee will no doubt study this phase of the matter too.

The sinking fund commissioners were ordered to retire $5,000 bonds due next year and $4,000 due the First National bank in 1917.

It was reported that a stove had been bought for the fire department and that soft coal was being burned in it.

The street committee reported that the cement sidewalks near lots 13 and 14, block 239, were not in good condition and should not be accepted in their present shape. The report was accepted.

Alderman Peterson said that cemetry hill should be repaired and the street commissioner was ordered to do so. The street commissioner was also ordered to fix up the blocked ends of a culvert in Northeast Brainerd.

A voluminous report was made about the poor relief asked for and the council wondered how much longer their slender resources would last.

Secretary John A. Hoffbauer, of the Brainerd Booster club, submitted the following communication for the consideration of the city council:
"Charity work in Brainerd, when properly organized in the form of an Associated Charities, can accomplish more and its efforts can be better directed and centered than in the present method in vogue in Brainerd, where one family may receive assistance from various societies while another very needy one is completely neglected.

"The Booster club, after listening to the address of Supt. W. C. Cobb on Associated Charities, carried a motion that the city council be asked to call a public meeting for the organization of an Associated Charities in Brainerd to the end that all societies, city council and other agencies in Brainerd may unite to carry on relief work in a systematic manner."

The council set apart Tuesday, December 2, as the date of the public meeting and the same is to be held at the council chambers. It is hoped that all interested in charitable work will be present and unite in an organization.

The hydrant on the corner of 18th and Oak was reported broken and the Slipp-Gruenhausen Co. was ordered to repair same.

Aldermen Betzold and Anderson spoke about street lighting.

The poor of the city wanting clothing should report to the aldermen of their wards.

The city weighmaster job was discussed and means for increasing the business taken under consideration.
If all people demanded a city weigh scale certificate on coal they purchased the receipts of Weighmaster Otto Reinhardt would be materially increased.

A. J. Loom, of the Brainerd City band, presented a resolution regarding the maintenance of the band and it was adopted without a dissenting vote. The band will receive a half-mill tax levied the coming year.

A resolution was adopted ordering certain streets to be paved with cement. The council adjourned near the midnight hour.

beer. They played smear. Four games were played and four rounds of beer served.

Joseph Sumner said he was in the saloon and was the bartender. He said he turned down the requests the boys made for liquor and gave them none. They said they could get some somewhere else.

"Well, if you can get some somewhere else," said Sumner, "that's the place for you to go." Some were intoxicated when they came in. Eltinghouse, the witness claimed, was intoxicated. The drinks he ordered were not paid for then and had not been paid for today. One minor said he wanted a drink and gave his age as 21 but Sumner said he would not sell him any. Benson came in at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and stayed until 4:30 and promised to make a "rough house" by 7 in the evening.

An officer was called to remove Benson. Sumner protested that all the minors who claimed they had drinks at the saloon were not telling the truth.

Frank Bedarf, the proprietor, said he had given the bartender strict orders not to sell to minors.

Mayor R. A. Henning said that conclusive evidence had been received that this saloon had sold liquor to minors. He said two other saloons were being watched. Several minors had been in municipal court, being picked up drunk in the streets.

A motion was made to defer to the next meeting further consideration of the Bedarf saloon matter. Mayor Henning said the Brainerd Brewing Co. had put up the $500 license money and that it was trying to protect its interests. He claimed that Werner Hemstead had gone over the affidavits before the transfer for a license from Bedarf to Henry Wise was filed. The present motion was made to defer the issue and to defer action until a vote was taken on the transfer.

The motion to defer action was lost 5 to 4, the aldermen voting as follows: To defer action, Aldermen Mahlum, Stallman, Smith and Lagerquist. Against deferring action, Aldermen Peterson, Anderson, Betzold, Haake, Gallupe.

Alderman Anderson, seconded by Alderman Haake, made a motion to revoke the license. It carried 6 to 3. For revocation were Aldermen Smith, Peterson, Anderson, Betzold, Haake and Gallupe. Against revocation were Aldermen Mahlum, Stallman and Lagerquist, who stated their reasons for so voting.

All voted aye to refund the unused portion of the license money.

The matter of a fill at the present site of the Northeast Brainerd ravine bridge was taken up. Mayor Henning detailed the results of his correspondence with various contractors, Foley Brothers, of St. Paul; Peter Nelson, of Minneapolis. Each contractor thought it too small a job to undertake. Nelson made a price of 30 cents a cubic yard and freight to be paid one way on his equipment, as to be hauled to the timbers now in the bridge.

Alderman Haake said most of the people he had seen were in favor of the fill, preferring it to a bridge.

City Attorney Haggard said the bridge had been maintained under a perpetual lease from the Northern Pacific railway. Mr. Cooper, of the land department, was not at St. Paul when he called and that a subordinate had given him the information. Mr. Haggard was requested to put his request for information in writing and it was filed at the railway office for Mr. Cooper's perusal. He was told at the office that the railway company, as a rule, had no objection to a fill being made. Such requests were usually granted.

On motion it was decided to put before the people at the special election called for the consideration of the city manager plan of commission government, the question of voting for $22,000 bonds to put in the fill. The city attorney was instructed to prepare the necessary resolution to that effect.

Alderman Mahlum called attention to the fact that the city should have a new lockup, as the present one had been condemned by the state board of control. Alderman Peterson moved that a committee be appointed to meet with the county commissioners and ascertain their views. Agent Foley, of the state board of control had offered the council access to all plans and records referring to jails built in all parts of the state and would be glad to have the whole council call for information. Alderman Mahlum suggested that the city attorney and city engineer be appointed a committee to meet with the board of control and this motion carried.

In the discussion the fact was brought out that many cities housed their city hall and county court house in the same building, thus saving on heating and maintenance. St. Paul followed this plan and many other large cities and the committee will no doubt study this phase of the matter too.

The sinking fund commissioners were ordered to retire $5,000 bonds due next year and $4,000 due the First National bank in 1917.

It was reported that a stove had been bought for the fire department and that soft coal was being burned in it.

The street committee reported that the cement sidewalks near lots 13 and 14, block 239, were not in good condition and should not be accepted in their present shape. The report was accepted.

Alderman Peterson said that cemetery hill should be repaired and the street commissioner was ordered to do so. The street commissioner was also ordered to fix up the blocked ends of a culvert in Northeast Brainerd.

This is the Stove Polish YOU Should Use

IT'S different from others because more care is taken in the making and the materials used are of higher grade.

Black Silk Stove Polish

Makes a brilliant, silky polish that does not rub off or dust off, and the shine lasts four times as long as ordinary stove polish. Used on sample stoves and sold by hardware dealers.

All you ask is a trial. Use it on your cook stove, your parlor stove or your gas range. If you don't find it the best stove polish you ever used, your dealer is authorized to refund your money. Insist on Black Silk Stove Polish. Made in liquid or paste—one quality.
